

HR4VR Announces Name Change and Corporate Focus On Vacation Rental Human Resource Consulting

Formerly The KLS Group, HR4VR Specializes In The Vacation Rental Market

Bend, OR (PRWEB) October 05, 2017 -- HR4VR, formerly The KLS Group, today announced they have officially changed the name of the company and have dedicated their resources to focus exclusively on the vacation rental market. As experts in HR, especially as it pertains to vacation rental managers, HR4VR provides clients with HR Best Practices that result in better working environments, happier, more productive employees, and more success.

“It is always important to align our clients' organizational goals with their company vision, goals and culture,” said Sue Jones, president and owner of HR4VR. “More than just recruiting, HR is a mission critical, strategic component of any company. You not only have to have policies in place that are compliant with local and national laws, you need to develop your employees and optimize your organization, which will lead to greater success.”

About HR4VR

HR4VR is a boutique HR consulting firm specializing in helping vacation rental management companies with their human resource needs. With a focus on people, policies, and planning, the HR4VR team are experts in employment, strategic planning, employee development and compensation and benefits. Visit www.HR4VR.com for more information.

Contact Information

Bill Schlosser

Dr Brando

<http://www.drbrando.com>

+1 (256) 258-7990

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.